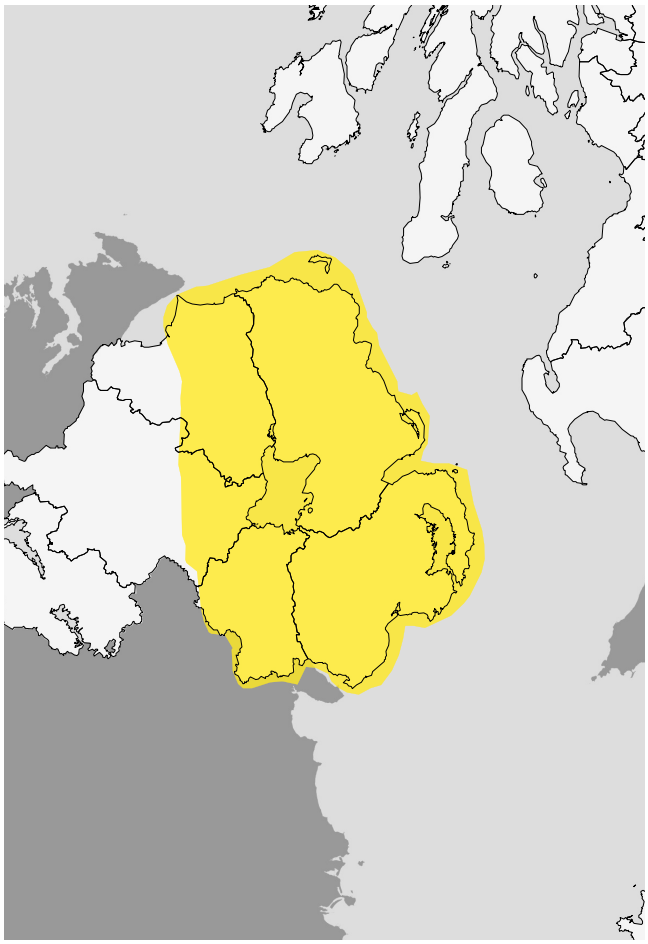
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
20:00 Thu 10 Aug 2023 and
02:00 Fri 11 Aug 2023



Heavy rain is likely to push quickly northeast across parts of Northern Ireland this evening, leading to some localised disruption.

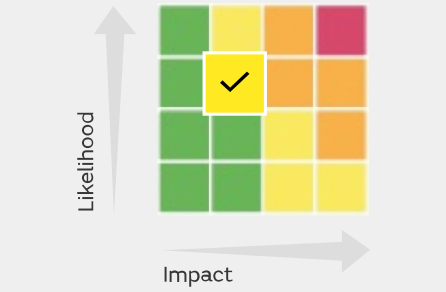
What to expect

- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer
- Some interruption to power supplies and other services likely
- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is likely

Further details

Rain is expected to reach the west of Northern Ireland this evening, before continuing generally northeast across the rest of the country tonight, clearing the north coast during the early hours of Friday.

Rain may become heavy for a time, particularly for parts of eastern Derry and Tyrone, Antrim (including the Belfast area), Armagh and Down. 10-15 mm of rain could fall in a few hours, with 20-30 mm possible locally. Given wet ground, some localised flooding is possible, especially in areas where run-off occurs.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
